

HELLO

My name is Jenny Parkington. I am a bright, enthusiastic, creative graphic designer|illustrator. I love creating clean effective designs and have a wide range of experience in editorial, typography, illustration and print. Passionate about design and aesthetics. I provide design solutions from first ideas, concept to completion or simply all or some of the bits in between. Self motivated as well as an exceptional team member. I am always determined to find the best design solutions and grow creatively. Organised, committed to always meeting deadlines with excellent attention to detail.
